Chinese Journal of Contemporary Neurology and Neurosurgery(CJCNN) is the official journal of Chinese Medical Doctor Association, Tianjin Science and Technology Association, and Tianjin Neurosciences Society. CJCNN is the official journal of Chinese Medical Doctor Association, Tianjin Science and Technology Association, and Tianjin Neurosciences Society. CJCNN aims to facilitate international collaboration and exchange of comprehensive and cutting-edge information on basic, translational, and applied clinical research in neurology and neurosurgery. Prevention, treatment and research relevant to China is a focus area, but submissions from all regions are welcomed.CJCNN was launched in October, 2001 with an international Editorial team having a unique mix of Asian and Western participation.

CJCNN is an international multidisciplinary peer-reviewed bimonthly Chinese journal that publishes editorials, original full-length research articles, short communications, reviews, methodological papers, commentaries, perspectives and short reports in the broad fields of developmental, molecular, cellular, systems, computational, behavioral, cognitive, and clinical neurosciences.

CJCNN has been indexed by Chemical Abstracts, Ulrich's Periodicals Directory,Wanfangdata, etc.

Submission: Submission of a paper to CJCNN is understood to imply that it deals with original material not previously published, and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts submitted under multiple authors are reviewed on the assumption that all listed authors have agreed on the submission and that a copy of the final manuscript has been approved by all authors. Manuscripts are first reviewed by the editorial staff to ensure their appropriateness relevant to the framework of the journal. The manuscript would be peer-reviewed by related specialists. If accepted, the article shall not be published elsewhere in the same form, without the consent of the Editors and Publisher.

Manuscripts of length up to a maximum of 8000 words will be considered for publication. Articles should be written in English, should be complete in all respects, and double spaced with wide margins. The layout and style should adhere strictly to the instructions given and in particular, the reference style of CJCNN. The author must declare that all experiments on human subjects were conducted with the adequate understanding and written consent of the subjects. When experimental animals are used, the methods section must clearly indicate that adequate measures were taken to minimize pain or discomfort.

Submission items include Cover Letter, Reviewer Suggestions, Manuscript including Title Page, Abstract, Manuscript Text, References and Tables/Figure Legends), Tables and Figures. Text files (double-spaced) of the manuscript should be supplied in Microsoft Word format.

Title Page: This page should contain the following items: (i) complete title (preferably no chemical formulas or arbitrary abbreviations); (ii) full names of all authors; (iii) complete affiliations of all authors; (iv) the number of text pages of the whole manuscript (including figures and tables) and the number of figures and tables; (v) the name and complete address of the corresponding author (as well as telephone number, facsimile number and E-mail address, and if available URL address) to whom correspondence and proofs should be sent; (vi) acknowledgements.

Keywords: 3-6 MeSHkeywords or phrases should be provided; preferably, these should be selected from the body of the text.

Abstract: An Abstract of up to 300 words describing the purpose of the study, the methods, the results, and the conclusion should precede the main text. In general, the main text of the manuscript should be organized as follows: Introduction, Material and Methods, Results, Discussion, Acknowledgements, and References.

References. Authors are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of their references and for correct text citation. Number references in the order they appear in the text; do not alphabetize. In text, tables, and legends, identify references with superscript Arabic numerals. When listing references, follow AMA style3 and abbreviate names of journals according to the journals list in PubMed. List all authors and/or editors up to 6; if more than 6, list the first 3 followed by "et al." Note: Journal references should include the issue number in parentheses after the volume number.

Examples of reference style:

Each illustration must have a title and an explanatory legend. The title should be part of the legend and not be reproduced on the figure itself. The legends should be placed on a separate page at the end of the manuscript and begin with the number of the illustration they refer to. All symbols and abbreviations used in the figure must be explained.

Tables: Tables should be so constructed that they, together with their captions and legends, will be intelligible with minimal reference to the text. Tables of numerical data should each be typed (with double-spacing) on a separate page, numbered in sequence in Arabic numerals (Table 1, 2, etc.) and referred to in the text as Table 1, Table 2, etc. The title of the table should appear above it. A detailed description of its contents and footnotes should be given below the body of the table.

Proofs: Authors will receive proofs by email. Only printer's errors may be corrected; no change in, or additions to, the edited manuscript will be allowed at this stage. The corrected proofs must be returned within 72 hours after receipt by email. If the Publisher receives no reply, the assumption will be made that there are no errors to correct and the article will be published.

OPEN ACCESS policy:The advent of online publication has greatly improved access to scientific content on a global scale. This has led to calls from the academic community for research to be made freely available online immediately upon publication, without the barrier of paid subscription to access.The current open access charges for CJCNNare:Author charge (per article)- $200.
